Dear Mr. Johnston,

You called Frame-Up "dynamite." It led to judicial re-opening of the King assassination, provided Ray's defense sustained in a hearing a year ago and helped bring about a new principle of law approved by the Supreme Court.

Compared with Frame-Up, I think you will find Post Mortem an evidentiary nuclear bomb.

If you would like I'll send you a copy as soon as the printer delivers the first.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
